Ce livre est fait pour toi · Who this book is for · 这本书写给谁

You are at A1 today. Your goal is B2 on the TCF Canada (usually NCLC 7 or more in each skill). You speak Chinese natively and know some English grammar. This book uses all three languages on purpose:

- Français — the target. Every rule is shown in real French sentences.
- English — your "bridge": French and English share ~30% of their vocabulary and many grammar ideas (tenses, relative clauses, passive voice…).
- 中文 — your "safety net": when an idea is new (gender, articles, subjunctive), a Chinese explanation makes it click faster.

📌 Règle · Rule · 规则

Part	Level	What you will be able to do · 你能做到
1 · Les fondations	A1–A2	Build correct simple sentences: nouns, articles, adjectives, present tense, questions, negation. 写对简单句。
2 · Le temps	A2–B1	Tell stories in the past, talk about plans and the future. 讲过去的故事、谈计划。
3 · Les pronoms et la phrase	B1	Avoid repetition with le, lui, y, en; join ideas with qui, que, dont. 用代词避免重复、用关系从句连接句子。
4 · Les modes	B1–B2	Give advice, imagine, hypothesise (si…), express wishes and doubts (subjunctive). 假设、建议、表达愿望与怀疑。
5 · La boîte à outils B2	B2	Passive voice, reported speech, connectors, nuance and register. 被动、间接引语、逻辑连接词、语域。

The 80/20 of B2 grammar · B2 语法的二八法则

If time is short, these chapters give the most points on the TCF: articles (Ch. 3), passé composé vs imparfait (Ch. 11–12), object pronouns, y, en (Ch. 15–16), relative pronouns (Ch. 17), conditional & *si (Ch. 21–22), subjunctive (Ch. 23–24), connectors (Ch. 28). The examiners reward range (使用多样结构) and accuracy (准确性).

Comment étudier avec ce livre · How to study · 怎么用这本书学习

1. One chapter = three sessions.

- Session 1 — Understand (理解): read the chapter, say every French example out loud.
- Session 2 — Remember (记住): the next day, cover the French line and translate the Chinese line back into French. This is the most powerful exercise in the book: 回译法 (back-translation).
- Session 3 — Use (会用): do the Exercices, check the answer key at the end, then write 5 sentences about your own life with the new structure.

2. Spaced repetition (间隔重复). Review each chapter after 1 day, 3 days, 7 days and 21 days. Put the examples you get wrong into Anki or a notebook.

3. Learn sentences, not words. Don't memorise prendre = to take. Memorise Je prends le bus tous les matins. A sentence gives you the gender, the article, the preposition and the conjugation at once.

4. Speak and write from week one. Grammar you never use disappears. Every chapter ends with a real life section so you can use the structure immediately.

🀄 Pour les sinophones · 中文母语者注意

中文母语者的三大优势和三大难点

优势： ① 你习惯了记忆大量字词，法语单词量对你不是问题；② 中文语序 SVO 和法语基本一致；③ 你学过英语，已经理解"时态""从句""被动"这些概念。

难点： ① 阴阳性和冠词——中文没有，必须"名词+冠词"一起记；② 动词变位——中文动词不变，法语一个动词有几十种形式，要靠规律而不是死记；③ 时态的"体"——中文用"了、过、着"，法语用复合过去时/未完成过去时，逻辑不同，本书会专门对比。

Le français en 10 idées · French in 10 big ideas · 法语十大核心概念

Before the details, here is the whole picture. Everything in this book is an expansion of these ten ideas.

1. Every noun is masculine or feminine — le livre, la table. 每个名词都有阴阳性。
2. Nouns almost always need an article — J'aime le café. Je bois du café. 名词前几乎总要冠词。
3. Adjectives agree with the noun and usually come after it — une voiture rouge. 形容词要配合，通常放在名词后。
4. Verbs change with the person (je parle, nous parlons) and the tense/mood. 动词按人称和时态变位。
5. Two past tenses work together: passé composé = events; imparfait = background. 两个过去时分工合作。
6. Pronouns go before the verb — Je le vois. Je lui parle. J'y vais. 宾语代词放在动词前面。
7. Negation wraps around the verb — Je ne parle pas. 否定把动词"夹"起来。
8. Moods express attitude: indicative (facts), conditional (imagination/politeness), subjunctive (wishes, emotions, doubt). 语式表达说话人的态度。
9. French hates hiatus (two vowels clashing), so it elides and links: l'ami, j'aime, les‿amis. 法语讨厌元音相撞：省音与联诵。
10. Register matters: spoken French drops ne, uses on for nous, and asks questions with intonation. Written exam French is more formal. 口语和书面语差别很大。

Les sons et l'orthographe en bref · Sounds & spelling in brief · 发音与拼写速览

This is a grammar book, but you cannot do grammar without hearing it: many grammar endings are written but not pronounced.

Accents · 音符

Accent	Example	Effect · 作用
é (aigu)	café, été	closed [e], like "ay" without the y-glide. 闭口 e
è (grave)	mère, très	open [ɛ], like "e" in bed. 开口 e
ê (circonflexe)	fête, forêt	usually [ɛ]; often marks a lost s (fête ↔ feast, forêt ↔ forest). 常表示古法语丢失的 s
à, ù	à, où	no sound change; distinguishes words (a has / à to; ou or / où where). 只区分词义
ç (cédille)	ça, garçon	makes c = [s] before a, o, u. 让 c 读 [s]
ë, ï (tréma)	Noël, naïf	pronounce the vowels separately. 两个元音分开读

🧠 Mémo · Memory hook · 记忆法

The circumflex trick · 长音符小窍门

When you see ê, â, î, ô, û, try adding an s: hôpital → hospital, île → isle, château → castle, forêt → forest, intérêt → interest. Instant vocabulary from English!

Silent letters · 不发音的字母

As a rule, final consonants are silent — except often C, R, F, L (think of the English word CaReFuL): sac, finir, neuf, sel are pronounced; petit, grand, vous, nez are not. The final -e is silent: table [tabl]. And the verb ending -ent (ils parlent) is always silent.

🀄 Pour les sinophones · 中文母语者注意

听力提示

法语中很多语法词尾看得见、听不见：il parle / ils parlent 发音完全一样；ami / amie 发音也一样。所以听力时要靠冠词和代词判断单复数（le / les, il / ils + 联诵），写作时要特别检查词尾。

Elision and liaison · 省音与联诵

Elision（省音）: le, la, je, me, te, se, ne, de, que, si (before il/ils) drop their vowel before a vowel or mute h:

> l'homme, l'école, j'aime, je n'ai pas, qu'il vienne, s'il pleut
> the man, the school, I love, I don't have, that he come, if it rains　省音后用撇号连接

Liaison (联诵): a normally silent final consonant is pronounced when the next word starts with a vowel: les‿amis [lezami], vous‿avez [vuzave], un‿enfant [œ̃nɑfɑ̃]. Liaison is compulsory after articles and pronouns, forbidden after et (et / un) and before an aspirated h (les / héros).

Compréhension écrite (reading)	39 multiple-choice questions, increasing difficulty	60 min
Expression écrite (writing)	3 tasks: short message · article/story · argued comparison of two opinions	60 min
Expression orale (speaking)	3 tasks: guided interview · role-play where you ask questions · giving an opinion	12 min

Results are converted into NCLC levels (Niveaux de compétence linguistique canadiens). B2 corresponds roughly to NCLC 7–8; for writing and speaking, NCLC 7 is generally around 10–11 / 20. Score tables and requirements change — always check the latest official tables of France Éducation international and IRCC for your immigration program.

Part 6 of this book (Ch. 31–33) gives you the full strategy, templates and model answers.

💡 Astuce · Tip · 窍门

How grammar earns points in each skill · 语法怎样帮你拿分

- Reading & listening: recognising tenses, pronouns (en, y, lui, dont) and connectors (pourtant, en revanche, donc) tells you who did what and what the author really thinks.
- Writing & speaking: the grid explicitly rewards étendue (range) and correction (accuracy) of grammar. A B2 candidate uses the subjunctive, the conditional, relative pronouns and logical connectors naturally and mostly correctly.

Partie 1 · Les fondations

Foundations · 基础

A1 → A2

Chapitre 1 · Je, tu, il… : être et avoir

Subject pronouns, to be and to have · 主语人称代词、être 和 avoir

A1

Objectifs · use the 8 subject pronouns correctly (including on and vous), conjugate être and avoir, and know the expressions where French uses avoir but English uses to be. 掌握主语代词、être/avoir 变位，以及"用 avoir 表达的'是'"。

Les pronoms sujets · Subject pronouns · 主语人称代词

	Singulier		Pluriel
1st	je (j')	I · 我	nous	we · 我们
2nd	tu	you (friend) · 你	vous	you (polite or plural) · 您 / 你们
3rd	il / elle / on	he, it / she, it / one, we · 他、它 / 她、它 / 人们、我们	ils / elles	they · 他们 / 她们

📌 Règle · Rule · 规则

Tu ou vous ?

- tu = one person you know well: family, friends, children, classmates, colleagues your age (in Québec, tu is used even more widely).
- vous = (a) one person, politely: a stranger, a shop assistant, an examiner, your boss; (b) any group of two or more people, polite or not.

In the TCF speaking test, address the examiner with vous unless they explicitly invite you to use tu.

> Tu viens ce soir, Léa ?
> Are you coming tonight, Léa? 莉娅，你今晚来吗?
>
> Vous êtes madame Martin ?
> Are you Mrs Martin? 您是马丁女士吗?
>
> Les enfants, vous avez faim ?
> Kids, are you hungry? 孩子们，你们饿了吗?

Il and elle also mean "it" · il/elle 也可以指物

French has no neutral "it" for nouns. A masculine noun becomes il, a feminine noun becomes elle — even objects.

> Le livre ? Il est sur la table.
> The book? It's on the table. 书？它在桌子上。（livre 是阳性）
>
> La voiture ? Elle est en panne.
> The car? It's broken down. 车？它坏了。（voiture 是阴性）

Ils for mixed groups · 混合群体用 ils

Elles is used only when the whole group is feminine. One masculine element, and the group becomes ils.

> Marie et Sophie ? Elles sont médecins.
> Marie and Sophie? They're doctors. 玛丽和索菲？她们是医生。
>
> Marie, Sophie et Paul ? Ils sont médecins.
> Marie, Sophie and Paul? They're doctors. 加上保罗——只要有一个男性就用 ils。

On — the most useful pronoun in spoken French · on——口语里最常用的代词

On is grammatically 3rd person singular (*on est, *on a), but it has two meanings:

1. "we" in everyday speech — it replaces nous in conversation. 口语中代替 nous。
2. "people / one / they" in general statements. 泛指"人们"。

> On va au cinéma ce soir ?
> Shall we go to the cinema tonight? 我们今晚去看电影吗？
>
> Au Canada, on parle anglais et français.
> In Canada, people speak English and French. 在加拿大，人们说英语和法语。
>
> On m'a volé mon vélo !
> Someone stole my bike! 有人偷了我的自行车！

🗣️ Dans la vraie vie · Real life · 真实用法

Nous vs on

In real conversations, nous sounds formal. A French person says On est fatigués* far more than Nous sommes fatigués. In the writing test, prefer nous (or use on consistently for general truths). In the speaking test, on sounds natural and fluent.

Être · to be · 是 / 在

je suis	I am	我是
tu es	you are	你是
il / elle / on est	he/she/one is	他/她是
nous sommes	we are	我们是
vous êtes	you are	您/你们是
ils / elles sont	they are	他们是

🧠 Mémo · Memory hook · 记忆法

Hear the pattern · 听出规律

es / est sound the same [ɛ]. Sommes and sont both start with s-, like "see the size of the group". Say the whole chant 10 times: je suis, tu es, il est, nous sommes, vous êtes, ils sont. This verb is used in every past tense later (Ch. 11), so it must be automatic.

Uses of être · être 的用法

Je suis chinoise.
I'm Chinese. 我是中国人。（国籍：无冠词）

Elle est ingénieure.
She's an engineer. 她是工程师。（职业：无冠词！）

Nous sommes à Montréal.
We're in Montreal. 我们在蒙特利尔。（位置）

Le café est chaud.
The coffee is hot. 咖啡是热的。（性质）

C'est mon frère.
This is / He's my brother. 这是我哥哥。

⚠️ Piège · Trap · 常见错误

No article before a profession · 职业前不加冠词

After être, a bare profession or nationality takes no article: Je suis professeur. × Je suis un professeur. But with c'est, you need the article: C'est un professeur.* And if you add an adjective: Elle est une excellente professeure (correct but formal) / C'est une excellente professeure* (most natural).

Avoir · to have · 有

j'ai	I have	我有
tu as	you have	你有
il / elle / on a	he/she/one has	他/她有
nous avons	we have	我们有
vous avez	you have	您/你们有
ils / elles ont	they have	他们有

⚠️ Piège · Trap · 常见错误

ils sont ≠ ils ont

The most important pronunciation pair of A1: ils‿ont [ilzɔ̃] (they have — a z sound from the liaison) and ils sont [ilsɔ̃] (they are — an s sound). Listen for the buzz of the z!

Avoir where English uses to be · 英语用 be、法语用 avoir

French says you "have" your age, your hunger, your fear. This is one of the most frequent A1 errors.

Français	English	中文
avoir 25 ans	to be 25 (years old)	25 岁
avoir faim / soif	to be hungry / thirsty	饿 / 渴
avoir chaud / froid	to be (feel) hot / cold	觉得热 / 冷
avoir peur (de)	to be afraid (of)	害怕
avoir raison / tort	to be right / wrong	对 / 错
avoir sommeil	to be sleepy	困
avoir besoin de	to need	需要
avoir envie de	to feel like, want	想要
avoir mal à	to have a pain in	...疼
avoir l'air (+ adj.)	to look, seem	看起来
avoir lieu	to take place	举行
avoir de la chance	to be lucky	运气好

J'ai trente ans.

I'm thirty. 我三十岁。

~~× Je suis trente ans.~~

(Chinese/English logic — wrong) 中式/英式直译，错误

Tu as froid ? Je ferme la fenêtre.

Are you cold? I'll close the window. 你冷吗？我关窗。

Nous avons besoin d'un appartement.

We need an apartment. 我们需要一套公寓。

J'ai mal à la tête.

I have a headache. 我头疼。

Tu as raison, c'est trop cher.

You're right, it's too expensive. 你说得对，太贵了。

Le festival a lieu en juillet.

The festival takes place in July. 节日在七月举行。

Pour les sinophones · 中文母语者注意

和中文对照

中文说"我饿了""我怕"，没有动词"有"；英语说 I am hungry。法语却说"我有饿"——J'ai faim。把这些当成固定词组整体记：avoir faim、avoir peur、avoir 20 ans。另外，"我冷"如果指身体感觉用 J'ai froid；如果说"天气冷"用 Il fait froid（见第 6 章 faire）。Je suis froid 意思是"我性格冷淡"！

Il y a — "there is / there are" · 有（存在）

Il y a never changes for plural: il y a un problème / il y a des problèmes. It also means "ago" (Ch. 14).

Il y a un supermarché près d'ici ?

Is there a supermarket near here? 这附近有超市吗?

Il y a beaucoup de neige à Québec.

There's a lot of snow in Quebec City. 魁北克城雪很多。

Qu'est-ce qu'il y a ?

What's the matter? 怎么了?

Pour les sinophones · 中文母语者注意

"有"的两种翻译

"我有一个哥哥" = J'ai un frère（拥有，用 avoir）。"桌上有一本书" = Il y a un livre sur la table*（存在，用 il y a）。中文都说"有"，法语要区分。

C'est ou il est ? · It's · 这是 / 他是

Both translate as "it's / he's / she's", but they are used differently.

📌 Règle · Rule · 规则

- C'est + determiner + noun: C'est un ami. C'est ma voiture. — also c'est + adjective to judge a whole idea or situation: Le Canada ? C'est beau !
- Il / Elle est + adjective describing a specific person or thing: Mon ami ? Il est sympa. — or + bare profession/nationality: Il est médecin.*

Qui est-ce ? — C'est Marc. Il est canadien.

Who's that? — It's Marc. He's Canadian. 这是谁？——是马克。他是加拿大人。

Ce film ? C'est génial !

That film? It's great! 那部电影？太棒了！（评价整体，用 c'est，形容词用阳性）

Cette ville ? Elle est très grande.

This city? It's very big. 这座城市？它很大。

C'est difficile d'apprendre le français.

It's difficult to learn French. 学法语很难。（口语）

Il est difficile d'apprendre le français.

It is difficult to learn French. 同上（书面语，更正式）

💡 Astuce · Tip · 窍门

For the exam · 考试提示

In writing, Il est important de / Il est essentiel de + infinitive sounds more formal than C'est important de…. Both are correct.

En situation · In real life · 实际运用

A typical first exchange (TCF speaking, task 1, starts exactly like this):

— Bonjour, vous êtes madame Li ?

— Hello, are you Ms Li? ——您好，您是李女士吗?

— Oui, c'est moi. J'ai trente-deux ans, je suis comptable.

— Yes, that's me. I'm 32, I'm an accountant. ——是的，是我。我 32 岁，是会计。

— Vous avez des enfants ?

— Do you have children? ——您有孩子吗?

— Oui, j'ai une fille. Elle a cinq ans. On est à Toronto depuis deux ans.

— Yes, I have a daughter. She's five. We've been in Toronto for two years. ——有，一个女儿，五岁。我们在多伦多两年了。
